

NOTIFICATION AND CONSENT FOR COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

In accordance with the Law on Personal Data Protection (“Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia”, No. 87/2018, hereinafter “LPDP”) the Foundation Tempus, Žabljačka 12, Belgrade, acting as data controller, intends to collect and process your personal data included in your application/registration form (hereinafter “Data”) with regard to participation in the event organised by the Foundation Tempus. In this respect, the Foundation Tempus informs the party whose Data is collected about the following:

1. The Foundation Tempus collects and processes Data obtained through the registration form exclusively with a view to organising the event for academic or educational purposes, and with prior consent of the person whose Data are collected; the Data are kept for one year, i.e. while there is a legitimate need to process them. The Foundation Tempus shall not use the Data collected through the registration form for any other purposes.
2. The Foundation Tempus collects the Data with the informed consent of the party whose Data is collected, within the meaning of Article 15 of the LPDP.
3. The Foundation Tempus stores the Data within its internal electronic records (databases) with all necessary organisational, technical and human security measures as specified in the LPDP currently in effect.
4. The Foundation Tempus may give the Data to third parties, who are either processors or recipients of the Data. A processor, within the meaning of Article 4 paragraph 1 point (9) of the LPDP, is a natural person, legal person or an authority processing personal data on behalf of the data controller; a recipient is a user of the aforementioned Data, a natural person, legal person or an authority, to whom or which the Data have been disclosed, and may or may not be a third party.

The following categories of persons may have access to the Data:

- staff or other persons hired by the data controller;
 - partner organisations or programme donors;
 - companies maintaining data controller’s information systems in which the Data is stored.
5. Consent can be revoked at any point by notifying the official communication channels noted below. This doesn't interfere with the processing done in line with the consent given before the party revoked it.
 6. The rights of the person whose Data are collected and processed

With regard to personal data, the person whose Data are collected has the following rights:

- right to request access to their personal data and information on their procession from the data controller (Article 26 of the LPDP);
- right to request correction of inaccurate data or addition of further information (Article 29 of the LPDP);
- right to request deletion of data (Article 30 of the LPDP);
- right to data portability (Article 36 of the LPDP);
- right to request that the decision made exclusively based on automated procession, including profiling, do not apply to them (Article 38 of the LPDP);
- right to be informed of personal data violation, if this violation may cause significant risks to the rights and freedoms of natural persons (Article 53 of the LPDP);
- right to submit a complaint to the Commissioner for Information of Public Importance and Personal Data Protection – Bulevar kralja Aleksandra 15, 11120 Belgrade, tel: +38111 3408 900, e-mail: office@poverenik.rs (Article 82 of the LPDP);
- right to legislative protection if they think their rights, as specified in the LPDP, have been violated (Article 84 of the LPDP);
- other rights guaranteed by the LPDP currently in effect.

The person whose Data is collected can exercise their rights by sending a relevant request to the data controller. The data controller shall provide the person in question with all necessary further information and help, in accordance with the terms and conditions and in the manner specified in the LPDP currently in effect.

If you have any questions on the procession of your personal data, please contact us:
